

6516209105.txt

I see no reason to limit the radio broadcasts to the existing stations, networks or AM and FM bands. The government has other problems to solve and should not be involved with this type of thing.

We have been using XM for the last month and find it to be a great addition to AM and FM. I would hate to see your programming limited in any way